Dear <first name>:

We are pleased to present this replacement policy offer from American Modern Property and Casualty Insurance Company ("American Modern P&C").

What's happening?

Simply put, instead of a renewal notice, you are receiving this offer for a new policy from American Modern P&C, an affiliate of your current insurer, as a replacement for your current policy. The replacement policy will be comparable to your current policy. Because of this change, your current policy <previous policy number> will not renew.

Please note!

Your coverage will continue under this replacement policy. And because you currently pay your agent directly for your insurance policy, we will send invoices to your agent directly, and they will adjust your payment accordingly. Enclosed is an Important Notice describing any coverage differences between your current policy and the new American Modern P&C policy. Please review it and discuss any needed changes with your agent. If you choose not to accept the new policy, please contact your agent or us as soon as possible.

<Vacant Policy>

If you need help, please call <agent name> at <agent phone>.

Thank you for choosing us for your insurance coverage.

Sincerely,
